Jericho Is Conquered by God's People

AFTER the death of Moses, God told Joshua to lead the people into Canaan, for He had given the whole land to them. He also showed him how to conquer the important city of Jericho.

First came thousands of soldiers marching. Then came seven priests with seven trumpets. Four more priests followed, bearing God's Ark on their shoulders. Last of all came thousands of soldiers.

For six days they marched around the city in silence, except for the blowing of their horns. But the seventh time the priests blew a loud blast on their horns, and Joshua cried: "Shout! The Lord has given you the city."

Every man threw up his arms and shouted. The walls fell down with a terrible crash, and the Israelites captured Jericho.

Jesus Gives Us the Eucharist

JESUS knew that He would soon be put to death. So He told the Apostles to meet Him in a certain room for His Last Supper with them.

Jesus took some bread, and when He had said the blessing, He broke it and gave it to the Apostles. “Take this . . . and eat of it,” He said, “for this is My Body.”

Then He took a cup, and when He had given thanks He gave it to them. “Take this, all of you, and drink from it,” He said, “for this is the chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the new and eternal covenant, which will be poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in memory of Me.”

Jesus gave His Apostles His greatest Gift—His own Body and Blood under the appearances of bread and wine. He made the Apostles priests and gave them the power to do the same thing in memory of Him.
