

Moses Crosses the Red Sea

The leader of Egypt, Pharaoh, held God's people for many years. Moses asked him to free God's people. He said he never would.

God punished Egypt's people many times to change Pharaoh's mind. Pharaoh agreed only after God sent an Angel to kill the firstborn of every family in Egypt.

Sorry he freed them, Pharaoh, with his army, chased them to the Red Sea. Moses raised his stick and God split the waters in two. God's people passed on dry land. When Pharaoh's army followed, the waters flowed on top of them.

The Holy Spirit Comes

Mary and the Apostles gathered to pray ten days after Jesus went up into the heavens. Suddenly, they heard a great wind. A flame of fire appeared above each of their heads.

They were filled with the Holy Spirit. The followers of Jesus were no longer alone.

The Holy Spirit had been sent to make their faith strong. He would teach them and help them preach the Gospel.

Peter went outside and began to preach to a large crowd that had gathered. Many people accepted the faith that day and were baptized.
